

PO Box 577
Walterville, OR 97489
541.744.0090
800.556.2012
www.trineday.com

TrineDay Fall Book Announcements Book Release Information

Title: Fleshing Out Skull & Bones — Investigations into America's Most Powerful Secret Society

Authors: Kris Millegan, Antony Sutton, Toby Rogers, Anton Chaitkin, Daniel Hopsicker, Webster Tarpley and more

Publisher: Trine Day, PO Box 577, Walterville, OR. 97489

Distributor: Independent Publishers Group, www.ipgbooks.com

Date of Publication: October, 2003

Genre: History/Secret Societies/USA, 720 Pages, 6x9, Cloth
100+ B&W Photos, Price: $32.95 ISBN 0-9720207-2-1

"The very word "secrecy" is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and to secret proceedings. We decided long ago that the dangers of excessive and unwarranted concealment of pertinent facts far outweighed the dangers, which are cited to justify it.

President John F. Kennedy April 27, 1961

AUTHORS

ANTONY SUTTON was a research Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University, from 1968 to 1973 and an economics professor at California State University Los Angeles. He was born in London in 1925 and educated at the universities of London, Göttingen and California with a D.Sc. degree from University of Southampton, England. Antony has written over 20 books, including the groundbreaking exposé, America's Secret Establishment- An Introduction to the Order of Skull & Bones.

CHARLOTTE ISERBYT served as Senior Policy Advisor in the Office of Educational Research and Improvement, U.S. Department of Education, during the first Reagan Administration, where she blew the whistle on a major technology initiative which would control curriculums in America's classrooms. Iserbyt is a former school board director in Camden, Maine and was co-founder and research analyst of Guardians of Education for Maine (GEM) from 1978 to 2000. She has also served in the American Red Cross on Guam and Japan during the Korean War, and in the United States Foreign Service in Belgium and in the Republic of South Africa. Iserbyt is a speaker and writer, best known for her 1985 booklet Back to Basics Reform or OBE: Skinnerian International Curriculum and her 1989 pamphlet Soviets in the Classroom: America's Latest Education Fad which covered the details of the U.S.-Soviet and Carnegie-Soviet Education Agreements which remain in effect to this day. She is a freelance writer and has had articles published in Human Events, The Washington Times, The Bangor Daily News, and included in the record of Congressional hearings.

RALPH E. BUNCH is an emeritus professor of the Department of Political Science of Portland State University. He was born in Portland, Oregon in 1927, served in the US Navy during WW II, graduated from Lewis and Clark College in 1951, received an M.S. (1961) and Ph.D. (1968) in political science from the University of Oregon. He has taught in public school in Oregon, Japan, and Canada, and during his twenty-five years as a professor, has taught in Oregon, Texas, Washington, and Russia. He served 16 years as Book Review Editor for The International Journal of Comparative Sociology, edited three books, and has authored numerous articles in professional journals. He is retired and lives with his wife, Eleonora, in King City, Oregon and in Moscow, Russia.

STEVE SEWALL, Harvard A.B. '64, Yale M.A.T '66, U. C. Berkeley Ph.D. '91, is a Chicago area educator and media activist. With Robert W. Back, Trinity College B.A. '58 and Yale GRD '60, he is writing, Yale and the Modern World: Bush/Clinton/Bush, Big Money and the 2004.

ANTON CHAITKIN is a founding member of the political movement associated with Lyndon LaRouche. He is the history editor of Executive Intelligence Review, and written numerous articles on political and economic history. His 1992 book, George Bush: The Unauthorized Biography, co-authored with Webster Tarpley, stands as the definitive biography of the former President. Chaitkin was born in New York City in 1943, the son of Jacob Chaitkin, an attorney who spent the 1930s fighting Nazi Germany's corporate and legal collaborators on Wall Street.

Anton Chaitkin attended public school in Pasadena, California. His study of the history of the U.S. "Eastern Establishment" began in 1978, after he became aware of the startling inaccuracy of the relevant historical material in such publications as The New York Times. Chaitkin and his wife are the parents of a grown son, and live in Leesburg, Virginia.

CARL OGLEBY is the author of several books, notably The Yankee and Cowboy War. He has published a variety of articles on political themes. In 1965 he was the President of Students for a Democratic Society. He is the director of The Institute for Continuing de-Nazification in Massachusetts.

DANIEL HOPSICKER has spent a career in business television; producing Inside Wall Street and The Emerging Growth Stock Report, among others. He was executive producer of a business news magazine airing on NBC internationally when he went to Arkansas to film a story for a new series pilot and discovered that "things ain't always been jes' right down here," in the words of a famous Mississippi lawman. The initial result was a two hour-hour TV special, The Secret Heartbeat of America, which he was told "would not air while Clinton was President." He has just completed the first full length book about the career of Alder Berriman Seal called Barry and the boys.

TOBY ROGERS is a contributing writer to High Times, New York Times, The New York Post and the Village Voice. In 1992, he won the Quill Award for Investigative reporting. In 2003, Toby Rogers was featured in Horns and Halos, a film about George W. Bush.

HOWARD ALTMAN is the Editor-in-Chief of the Philadelphia City Paper. He lives in Pennsylvania.

JEDEDIAH McCLURE was born in Indiana in 1978, and graduated with a B.A. in international political economics from DePauw University. He is currently the President of Freedom-Medical, Phoenix, Arizona.

KRIS MILLEGAN is the son of a CIA intelligence official. His articles can be read in High Times and Paranoia magazines and on the Internet. He lives in Oregon.

